

The diagram shows a rectangular page layout with a light blue background. A red line is positioned near the top edge, with two arrows pointing outwards from the center towards the left and right edges. A blue line is positioned below the red line, with a long double-headed arrow extending across the entire width of the page. A green line is positioned in the lower right quadrant, with a single-headed arrow pointing left towards the center. The text is centered horizontally and placed between these lines.
